

The Sign Was in the 2017 Super Bowl of What's About to Happen Plus a Mini State of What's Going On Update

This is the picture of what's coming to me. Watch and learn, get to know the Character and Personality of God and how He is working things.

1. Firstly we have the prophecies given to Mark Taylor and See all of his prophecies to date in short videos
2. Then we have a continual stream of other prophets from Elijah List (isn't it neat we have prophets these days! We have real prophets! It's so exciting). Did you know that God calls Donald Trump a prophet? There is a Kim Clement prophecy that I viewed recently where God mentions about Donald being a prophet and not even knowing it.
3. You've seen how the election has worked out. Even though everything was stacked against DJT, he came through big time miraculously.
4. You've seen the Superbowl how the Patriots were getting beat up by the Falcons (Falcons are supposed to be an occult symbol of some sort. I read that... but cant' remember the source. And I'm not going to research the symbolism). But the Patriots, one could say, miraculously stormed back right at the end and when did they win? In overtime! This is track for victory ahead as the Evil Empire will soon be crushed, although it seems like, as everyone seems to be saying even in conservative media, that all hops is lost, that the Evil Empire will overcome and vanquish Donald John Trump. Hahahaha. Did you know that in recent prophecies, God is telling us to laugh at the enemy? This is all intense but watch God put on a show! God is the best Movie Maker there is! So many intricate layers of drama, mystery, surprise and amazement. This is awesome! Guess Who's going to win in overtime?... ☐

5. So don't waste your time getting depressed. Crush the doom and gloom. YOU go look forward, start obeying Jesus and start aggressively bearing fruit for the Kingdom. GO! You and I want no regrets from this day forward for eternity!
6. Start developing new mindsets and habits in winning and overcoming. Become very good at both.

I hope you do know and understand that we've entered an entire new age on the earth. Yes really. We have entered the Kingdom Age where Kingdom will rise up against Kingdom. What Kingdom? It's the Kingdom of Darkness vs. The Kingdom of Heaven.

- Everyone will know God exists without a doubt.
- You will start to see more and more angelic activity, physically.
- There will be lots of spiritual warfare but the Body of Christ will rise and rule.
- There will be a huge increase in miracles. You will be able access supernatural powers such as the releasing of the anointing, healing, commanding the Host of Heaven (massive war angels who are actually transformers (where the movie got the idea), raise people from the dead and much more.
- We entered into an age where the remnant of the body of Christ will rule and reign in the spirit realm. No this is not not millennial ages (obviously). This is the time of peace and safety that may last at least over a century according to some who have made Heaven visits. Then there will be a victory rapture when the bride has become holy and obedient, operating in the power of God, ruling and reigning in the spirit realm. And then you get that bump in the road of a 7 year tribulation. Who are these remnant rulers? It's all of us who:

- 1. Repent out of all sin and stop sinning, just get rid of them all, chop them off as severely as you would chop off your own hand, chop off your own foot or pop out your eyeball...
 - 2. Obey Jesus commands. If you are not obeying Jesus then He is not your Lord. If Jesus isn't your Lord then you will not belong to the Kingdom of Heaven, plain and simple.
 - 3. After you've become a good citizen of Heaven, obeying Heavens rules (the commands of Jesus of the New Testament) then you will have a close relationship with the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. You will return to your first love. You will hear Jesus' voice. You will be drawn to His frequency. You will know in the knowing, Jesus voice. Then you will start receiving instructions and commands in real time. Now you are in position to start bearing TONS of fruit for the Kingdom. And now you are able to get done what your Master, the King needs for you to do and commands you to do.
- So many people are getting to make Heaven visits – Hell visits too – you don't want to go there but it will certainly give you a wake up call. Better to go watch some of those Hell and Heaven visitation testimonies instead. You'll never ever want to sin ever again! I hear now some of those visitations are of the enemy. But others aren't. And all the ones I've studied say pretty much the same thing with some subtle variations:
- Ultimately what they all pretty much say: if you die in unrepentant sin, even as a born again

Christian, you're doomed. Now I don't know how detailed that gets for many don't even know the sins of the Bible (see the list of 666 sins we have and start knowing then uninstalling them from your mind and heart, your soul!). But the concept is that all sine must be confessed and repented from, to be put under the Blood of Jesus.

- So, No present and future sins are not automatically forgiven as those dreamers say (how many times does the Bible need to warn us about that stinking doctrine!) Repent. Repent. Repent. (that means reprogram yourself, as if you are a computer, uninstalling all of the commands of Satan which are the beliefs from this world that this or that sin is ok or good to do, and then installing Jesus Commands of the New Testament in place (don't just uninstall the sins, "cleaning out your house" without installing Jesus commands or the demons come right back and they bring more demons (see scripture). Come out of your denominations and their "man made" doctrines. Get rid of your "denominational lenses" that filter out Bible verses due to twisted man made doctrines. Haven you seen Howard Pittman's materials yet on how the demonic work through religious institutions? Read your Bible plainly and do what it says. If you don't understand something from now on ask your One and Only Teacher Who is the Lord, Himself, as He said. Don't make pastors, denominations, people on Youtube your lord; make Jesus your Lord only and follow Him. You can hear with man has to say but only follow Jesus. Now that's worth a few billion years and more of a tip!
- I have so much more to say but check out our Kat Kerr playlist on our Youtube channel to hear a bunch of videos on the Kingdom Age. Gotta get this post out.

Hopefully I can grow this site, add more writers and such over time. We'll probably need to start monetizing this site some how to do that. Hmm. Let's see what the Lord says. He just said "do it"! ☐ So awesome. Oh now He is reminding me that He actually command all of us who follow Him (follow = hear, seek, understand and obey) that everything speeds up and business now must be combined with ministry and that we need to do so. Yes that goes for YOU too. So it's time to open the ears and see if we can hear any good ideas on how to do that. That's me. And that's you. So that means make stuff and sell stuff or sell other's stuff. So what happens is that people can send tithes and offerings to your ministry and you give them something in return, a book, a course etc etc or joint venture with others like Sid Roth does, or create something, invent something... (no it's not about becoming a non profit in the wicked 501.3c that will soon be repealed) Maybe I can write up more on that later for you if I get a brain storm, no promises, but that could be interesting.

So cheer up! We WILL win. God ALWAYS Wins.

Go forth and bear fruit my friend!
