

Nice Salvation Prayer. Say it & Mean It So You Can Get into Heaven by Becoming Born Again

1. Become Born again from above by first by believing. As God the Son tells us, you can't get into Heaven without becoming born again. Why? Because you need that holy, perfect, spirit man version of yourself that was lost when Adam and Eve sinned in the Garden of Eden. That spirit man is born of God, is perfect, holy, does not sin (and is also really a really good looking version of you according to those who have been shown.). That said, this "new man" is perfect, your soul isn't instantly zapped perfect otherwise you'd become like a robot. So now by an act of your will (you = your soul, your will, your minds, your personality...) choose to obey Jesus's commands as Lord and stop obeying Satan's commands as lord, your current lord by default since Satan was given lordship over the Earth, for now, and you grew up, and were trained under His Kingdom of Darkness, in the "ways of the world". So then you move to step 2 in order to switch Kingdom's:

2. Then Salvation, Eternal Life, Heaven... Comes by: first confessing Jesus as Lord, admitting, submitting, acknowledging and inviting Jesus to be your Lord. This then means obeying Him from His commands of the New Testament (any verse from the New Testament said in a command or implied command style) and by obeying (following) Him in real time in the Spirit. Whomever or whatever you obey is your lord. Make Jesus your Lord if you want to get into Heaven which again, means to obey Him. (i.e. don't make yourself your lord, your religion your lord or let anything or anyone else direct your life, even moment to moment, second to second.) Follow after your new spirit man after you become born again then you will do the right thing (as opposed to following after your flesh). For if you want to be and remain a citizen of the Kingdom of Heaven then you need to obey the laws of the Kingdom, the "Country" of Heaven, and the laws of this new Country are given by the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Jesus, King of the Kingdom of Heaven about to be complete Ruler of the Universe.

Here: say this and mean it. If you need help go ask God directly. You don't need to ask anyone else. You're dealing with God your maker now. Hop on to it.

SALVATION PRAYER

Dear God in heaven, I come to you in the name of Jesus. I acknowledge to You that I am a sinner, and I am sorry for my sins and the life that I have lived; I need your forgiveness.

I believe that your only begotten Son Jesus Christ shed His precious blood on the cross at Calvary and died for my sins, and I am now willing to turn from my sin.

You said in Your Holy Word, Romans 10:9 that if we confess the Lord our God and believe in our hearts that God raised Jesus from the dead, we shall be saved.

Right now I confess Jesus as the Lord of my soul. With my heart, I believe that God raised Jesus from the dead. This very moment I accept Jesus Christ as my own personal Savior and according to His Word, right now I am saved.

Thank you Jesus for your unlimited grace which has saved me from my sins. I thank you Jesus that your grace never leads to license, but rather it always leads to repentance. Therefore Lord Jesus transform my life so that I may bring glory and honor to you alone and not to myself.

Thank you Jesus for dying for me and giving me eternal life. AMEN.

Disclaimer: This is a screen shot of a nice salvation prayer. I found it on my desk top. I do not remember where it was from. So may eternal credits go to whomever typed it up.

Down load the prayer or type your own version up of it and pass it around.

Ok. We'll hang out in a few thousand years or hopefully sooner and then later after that. We'll go do some fun things together in Heaven. It will be a blast. If you want to know more about what's in Heaven and the future and the distant past learn from Kat Kerr who has visited Heaven thousands of times. Here are ~ 100 videos on a play list in Youtube.

Also she has 2 websites where you can buy a bunch of recordings and some books at low prices and learn a ton about Heaven and what you're supposed to be doing now to become eternally great (and eternally wealthy). Revealing Heaven and Kat Kerr

URGENT! Get This Fixed Right Away

Less Than 10% of Christians Will Be Raptured Assume You Will Not...

Yet less than 1% of pastors will make the rapture?? You've got to see this video:

Why do I say assume that you're not going to raptured? Firstly the doctrines going on out there are so errant and powerfully so. Satan is running many masterworks of deception in full force these days. You need to assume you're not so you take massive action to ensure that you will be ready, having major robes white

¹⁰ I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. – Isaiah 61:10

We have to earn the robe of righteousness which gets us into the wedding feast which get this raptured. How? By doing the righteous acts of the Saints

⁷ Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

⁸ And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. – Revelation 19:7-8

See this video below. It's very powerful and potent. It lines up with the Scriptures. You have to understand that all of the Heaven and Hell visitation testimonies I've seen so far deal with obedience and the lack thereof. Most churches have fallen into massive deception. They've taken parts of the Bible out and they have denied Jesus as Lord. It's the same problem the Pharisees had – they want to be lord instead, they want people following after them instead of Jesus.

Ask the Lord how many days you need to repent as in fast and repent. And the video they talked about maybe three days or more. This is a big deal that you fully repent out of all your sins, yes even if you have been born again, especially. What does it mean to repent? It means to confess the wrong things you have done and admit they're wrong, it also means to admit wrong thinking in wrong beliefs; it means to get right with God; it means to say of this or that particular sin "I repent in the name of Jesus". Spend time with God and ask him to bring every send too your mind that you need To repent out of. Also here is a list of 666 sins you should go through immediately and repent out of each one – you'll be shocked how many sins you've been doing and didn't even fully know.

God's Spirit Poured Out In End Times

Joel 2:28-32 New King James Version (NKJV)

God's Spirit Poured Out

²⁸ "And it shall come to pass afterward
That I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh;
Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
Your old men shall dream dreams,
Your young men shall see visions.

²⁹ And also on My menservants and on My maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

³⁰ "And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth:
Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.

³¹ The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the Lord.

³² And it shall come to pass
That whoever calls on the name of the Lord
Shall be saved.
For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be deliverance,
As the Lord has said,

Among the remnant whom the Lord calls.

See How Peter Uses this Passage in Acts 2 Right After the Holy Spirit was Sent by Jesus

This applies to this time right after Christ resurrection in the book of Acts. But this passage looks to also imply what happens before the end of the age, the end times, at which we seems so very close.

The point I want to make here is that it seems as if the Lord has revealed many new layers of knowledge and understanding that work available on the past. Now all of the end times elements just about now make sense and are present so we can understand what's going on, why and what sitcom including the players involved.

Additionally we are finding people through the development of technology that are experiencing the Lord in amazing ways. Many are having visions, extensive visions of heaven and hell while being told to write down what they see and tell all as a warning and as instruction to save themselves from deceptive doctrines of false religions and watered-down Christian denominations. Here are a couple that you may want to check out. Of course check with the word and check directly to your Teacher, Christ Jesus to verify what is true:

- Mary K Baxter: Here is the Visions of Hell Site and here is the Visions of Heaven Site I
- Sister Sarah Binayamo Boyanga Visions with Jesus Showing Her Heaven and Hell
- Young girl's dream vision of the rapture, Heaven and Hell

Why am I showing you these videos? They were very powerful when I saw them. They were certainly a wake up call. And they seemed Biblically quite correct. But the most important benefit from watching come from you sobering up about the reality of what happens after you die. And these videos on heaven and hell, particularly hell will get you to drop all of your sin habits you still do, wipe out any gray area activities, Confess that out, Forgive offenses immediately – something you, we all need absolutely. Then additionally this is great motivation for you to get to work for the Lord doing what he told you to do so when he returns or when you die he finds you being a good servant. If He does the rewards are great. If He doesn't, scariness us awaits.

Life in the 8th Millennium by Perry

Some summary notes but not all:

- We'll be in Heaven during the Tribulation
- BEMA Seat of Judgement
- 1 Year Long wedding supper of the Lamb.
- Come back and rule and reign with Christ for 1000 years
- Then the New Jerusalem comes down
- Perry says he thinks we can teleport by thought. We think where we want to be and we instantly teleport.
- There is no more sea on the new Earth. Earth gets recreated. Rev: 21:1-1 World gets set on fire and recreated.
- Isaiah 65:17 “For, behold, I create new Heavens and a new Earth: and the former shall not be remembered or come into mind.” So memories of lost people, bad experiences ... will not be remembered.
- 8 is the number of new beginnings.
- 6000 years from Adam, 1000 years sabbatical Millennial Reign,

“Boy Sees End of World! Rapture & Heaven ! while Praying overnight!”

Very interesting. A 12 year-old kid who knows almost nothing about the Bible has this vision of heaven which has many accurate, vivid Biblical aspects in particular with his conversations with God.

Here about his visions, what God says to Him. Very fascinating pictorial representation of the size of Heaven, how things look, how God and angels look... then the fear test roller coaster testing your trust... then tribulation detailed graphic accounts that are scarily accurate sounding.

There's just too much detail in here that is in line Biblically for this to be a fluke or hallucination.

The boy also gets a message of how to get into Heaven. The first starts with him the question if he is good enough to get to heaven. That he shown that he's not so much. That he needs to repent. That he needs to not do worldly things anymore (Which were things like video games, certain TV shows etc..)

Keep perspective of what this is, but use it to get more serious really fast about your eternal life. This is not a terribly dramatic account and maybe it's more significant from my perspective since I know the Word well. We'll post more dramatic video accounts later. But the accuracy of what this kid saw and the effect on him is pretty significant. So therefore it's good to watch.

This is one point in history where we can genuinely say – the end is near! The end is probably only a few years away, or at least the start of the tribulation where two thirds of the planet will die (between 2018 to 2033 is highly probable)☐. If you're not fully born-again then a very scary eternal torture burning in hell awaits you. ☐

Don't believe what you heard from the media, lying religions that are more concerned about your adherence to that religion than you getting right with God – everything in the Bible will stand. Unless you know the Word from reading the Bible over and over and over you're not going to have a clue of what's going on in the world today and how to actually get into Heaven. Mercy will have an end point. You must be born again in Christ or there is no more mercy when your time is up.

How to Use this Video and the Fear of Hell to Your Advantage

A lot of people think talking about Hell fear is bad and mean. Well Hell certainly is bad and mean. You must use the fear of Hell to muster up enough energy encouraged breakthrough that fear barrier and get right with God.

It will take a big breaking through fear to pray directly to God, being willing to give up everything and trust Him. It will also taking a big emotional effort to do so. So in this case you can use fear of Hell as energy to help you overcome your fear in getting right with God. I went through this step 20 years ago so I know myself. Cry out to God directly and in total seriousness and ask Him if you can get into heaven and become one of His eternal children in Heaven and please show you how.

Oh and also this little guy talks about his vision of what happens on the earth during tribulation. He knows nothing of the topic according to the video or not much about anything biblically but gives a Frighteningly accurate, from what we understand, account of the tribulation disaster: very severe famine, those who admit to believing in Jesus at that time get their heads chopped off and they are eaten, (sounds bad but that's eternally awesome, martyrdom, and great placement in Heaven – and if you repent now and become born again in Christ you can avoid this through a rapture as many now conciser a pre trib, mid trib and end of trib multi rapture to take place in correspondence to the harvest cycles), no electricity anywhere on earth... So get scared and use fear to your benefit. You've had years to turn to God based on positive motivations but now you need negative motivation in the form of fear, in panic mode, to escape the pit of Hell. But but at least you still have a chance if you are reading this.

Discover How HELL is a Good Thing...

...For now.

What the heck am I talking about? Have I gone mad?

Well once you get to know the Bible and you'll understand how life works on earth, between heaven and earth plus hell. You'll start understand why things are as they are.

God your Maker has total awesomeness available for you today. Everyone across the planet has an amazing opportunity to experience the highest high (drugs can't even come close), the greatest joy, unlimited everlasting wealth and a relationship with God Who is awesome Person, with layers of amazing qualities that are very admirable, rich and electrifyingly wonderful.

I'm telling you from experience once you become born-again and receive the Holy Spirit, and walk with the Holy Spirit, also called abiding in Christ, you will feel complete, satisfied and completely happy! And although we try as humans, no human can come close to making you as completely happy as you can be by delighting in the presence of the Lord, your Maker.

And for those of you who were raised in various religions just focus on the concept of God as your Maker, the one who is trying to get your attention deep down in your soul. Don't get confused or tripped up on names for now. You don't need to do so. Just focus on God your Maker. And I understand because I came from where you are.

Now let's discuss this strange title of this article. Hell is a terrible terrible thing. In hell for example, you would experience the sensation of flesh being melted off your body over and over, as one example. That's just insane pain if you think about it. I certainly don't want to go there. And don't believe the cartoons and movies that seem like hell is some cool hangout joint; at the place of the most brutal torture for eternity, completely devastatingly, unfathomable. But in the present while you were still alive, ultimately hell is there for motivation!

You see God your Maker is trying to establish a most awesome love relationship with you. But in order to understand if you have to relate to yourself and think about what you want from other people.

You want people (good people) to like you, respect you, want to be around you, to love you, to delight in your presence, be thankful when you do something for them, think you're special, think you are super or awesome, be proud of you, be proud to be associated with you and not embarrassed around others, to want to spend quality time with you and so on... well guess what? This will come as a shock to most people because our religions have taught us otherwise... God wants the same love, liking and respect too as we do! After all we are made in His Image and LIKENESS. People tend to forget the likeness part.

So if you think about it, Why would he make us? For awesome friendships and loving relationships! You'll find that out once you read through the Bible over and over and over and over. You have to know God. Actually it's a requirement of salvation isn't it!

Oh yeah? Check out John 17:3 ³ "This is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. " Hmmn well that is interesting! I'll bet most had never heard this before! You barely even hear this from Evangelical churches! Secret of getting into heaven cannot be more clearly spelled out.

Now back to hell... Hell is there for motivation! You see it takes effort, lots of effort and emotional risk to pursue God, get right with him and fall in love with Him. It also is scary just like your other relationships or attempts at relationships. But we only have a limited time so many of us need motivation.

I know I dragged my feet for a while because I was scared. I knew I had to get right with my Maker and I wasn't right with Him at the time. But the thought of hell and people dying around me got me to overcome my fear and cry out to God asking him to allow me to become one of his children and have. And from there he supernaturally showed me through many people and the Bible each step I needed to take to get to Him, bringing me to the point where I finally believe and became born again. It was an amazing journey too! I'll tell you about it sometime:-)

Yes I'll see you may want to think about all of the relationships that you wanted to have in the past but never had because you were too scared to make it happen. This is especially true in terms of romantic relationships. But if you don't try you miss out! That said he don't want to miss out with God your Maker, because the alternatives are not good... You'll not magically appear in heaven alongside of Santa Claus and unicorns around you just by doing a little more good deeds than bad. Most of the world thinks this and they are tragically mistaken.

They've made up their own gods and their own rules of what they think is "fair" for God to do, deciding that if you do a little bit more good than bad you're going to heaven based on a positive report card. Think about it! Does that even make any sense? What benefit is therefore the Creator in this model? There is no direct value. There's no love, liking, respect, appreciation or worship with that model of good outweighing the bad. So why would he have all the people don't even know or care about him personally around him for eternity?!! I certainly wouldn't want you around me.

I want to be around people who are good, respectful, kind loving, who love me and like me, who are excited about me, who are genuine who delight in my presence and who honor me when honor is due... Especially if I was making A home for these people to be around me for eternity! And I certainly wouldn't want people who are mean, unloving, unkind, liars, people who didn't like me, people who didn't know me or even want to know me, people don't love me, people who don't like being around me, people who disrespect me, people who are thankless to me and so on... I wouldn't want those people around me more than 10 seconds much less eternity!! How about you? Think about it. This whole planet needs to rethink what it's been taught. That's why you need to read the Bible, the word of God: God is the Word as you'll get to understand by reading the Bible over and over.

Emotions give energy. Although fear is NOT the most noble emotion... It still can be used to help us move, take action! Frankly, you don't know when you are going to drop dead. Also we very likely have an times right around the corner. So the point is, don't rationalize off taking care of business with God a moment longer. And certainly don't listen to society these days! Society is like a big boiling pot of water filled with crabs that will pull you back in to that boiling water – don't hang out with the crabs! I'm sure you know what I'm talking about.

Use fear as a tool – the fear of hell! Muster it up to help you breakthrough and deal with your relationship to your Maker. Come clean with Him and start your relationship immediately. You need to get to know Him, remember? See the verse above. So you better get to it fast! Getting to know someone, at least someone does take some time!

How do you do this? Break apart from what you are doing and find a quiet place and it all sincerity and seriousness talk directly to God your Maker. Ask Him what to do to get right with Him. Ask Him how to become one of his children and get into heaven. If you are serious and sincere, crying out to God (you can cry out to God on your insides yes), then God will respond and he will show you the Way, the Truth and Eternal life.

On top of that it would be good for you, actually essential, to start reading the Bible. I would get on a plan to read the Bible at least three times a year. It should take you 30 minutes a day sometimes 40 minutes to read half a book of the Bible on average PER DAY. Just keep reading straight through. DO NOT TRY TO FIGURE THE BIBLE OUT VERSE BY VERSE! Learning the Bible does not work that way! You must keep reading through because answers are hidden all throughout the Old and New Testaments. Don't stop just put a mark with a pen and take notes on a. questions b. whatever stands out to you. Do not use a highlighter.

Keep on keeping on and you'll be AMAZED at the answers that will come to you by spending this quality time with the Lord your Maker. I would start with the Gospel of John and then go to the next book as the Lord your Maker inspires you. You will know what to read next at that time. You will find that you end up at the book that will answer a question of yours. (You'll likely get answers through your insides, from the radio, church sermons, TV or others as well, although mostly directly as the Lord reveals to you in the Bible). Of course you can always contact us with questions or contact a helpline above.
