

Dr. Michael Lake – Remnant

Boot Camp

Finally someone else understands the utter criticalness of hearing, understanding, obeying and turning into a habit the Commands of Jesus. (See my Commands of Jesus of the New Testament (version 1 commentary explanation, short form, is soon to be completed)). Why install Jesus commands? Because you have nothing without them and you will be walking in sin which will end up put you in a position of a “worker of iniquity” out of which Jesus will then say “see ya, I never knew you...” (paraphrased).

If you want to make your own commands list, which would be smart: take every verse said in a command style or an implied command style and do what it says. Get so good at doing it that the command becomes a Habit. Work with the Lord to understand what each command means and how to do it. i.e. Do not judge... Well you have to ask yourself, “exactly what is judging someone according to God?”. Then you can look it up in a dictionary. Better yet look it up in Strong’s (check out a “Lexicon” for an easy way of accessing Strong’s definitions). And best, ask the Lord directly to explain to you and then listen to what He says (the most accurate way). So you work WITH the Lord in learning, understanding then doing His commands. And once you hear, understand and do Jesus commands, His sayings what happens and what do you become? I’ll let you discover that in the Word (and it certainly is good news!).

Dr. Michael Lake makes a lot of great points. These points may help you succeed eternally and avoid a lot of trouble. But I’ll let you listen for yourself. I put this as a playlist on our End Times Beacon YouTube Channel.

For sure we all want to be “the remnant” of genuinely born again, obedient, holy and now powerful believers in Jesus.

Also as an eternal success tip: anything you hear from man you can hear but don't think you need to immediately believe or dive in to what they are saying. Why? Because you have only ONE Teacher. Who is that ONE Teacher? Come on now. You know. Hint 1. Hint 2

- Be a Berean
- Understand that the erroneous idea that you need to please man and believe every thing a man (man/woman) says puts very large stress on you and the person speaking. This leads to what? Nasty Youtube or internet commenting and the like. Have you noticed how so many are spewing out nasty criticism calling anyone who doesn't agree with usually their man made denominational doctrine a 'false prophet' or a 'false teacher'? Don't be that person because you don't want that sin on your records. Don't criticize. Don't hate which is murder. Don't judge, especially when you don't really know. This is tough to correct but chop it out of you.
- Only the Lord can reveal to you what something means in His Word so you can personally understand when you hear or read His Word. On that note, ask, seek, knock when you feel like you do not completely understand something and then open up your ears to hear; listen for your answer. Then thank the Lord of course for helping you out.
- And don't throw out a teaching just because a point or two doesn't coordinate with some doctrine or something that another man/woman taught you. We want to be perfect in God's eyes not man's.

Prophetic Word from the Lord Jesus – Wake Up Fast Check This Out

Listen to the second part of this video. The first part is about the voting process that you need to use paper ballots!! The second part is from the Lord Jesus Himself and is HUGELY Important to you personally!

Who will be raptured or not

The example: do you love the world more like Lot's wife?

This is a good point that most watered down churches don't seem to teach.

Sodom and Gomorrah – a picture of the great tribulation. Keep yourself spotless like Abraham. Lot kept himself dirty so he lost his rewards, much of his family and all of his stuff.

Lot's wife – loved the world more = doomed.

Great signs Part 1 Will Tribulation begin 2015, 2016, 2017, prophecy

Here is a good outline: Move fast! Time is almost up and watch the video.

Don't forget to repent. Many don't even understand what repent means. Repent means change your mind. Change your cerebral mind. Change your heart's mind which means change your beliefs. Beliefs about what? Turn away and stop believing everything that is contrary to the Word of God. And then turn to the Word of God, which is Jesus the Messiah. Do the Word. All of it, the New Testament that is. Make commands of the New Testament your beliefs that replace your old lease thinking sin was okay.

Live for the Lord. That means whatever you do, stop trying to build yourself up in this world, stop trying to pursue your happiness only in this world, and do now what you do for the Lord in His Kingdom. How do you do this? Do the commands that are in the New Testament starting with the Gospels.

From this video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g3yPBl4X308>

Do this: Now. Don't play games with eternity..

You need to be sure your saved.

- We are living in the last days.
- Pray and confess you are a sinner.
- Ask God to forgive you.
- Believe that Jesus died on the Cross to pay for your sins. He rose from the dead!
- Repent, do a 180 and turn from sin.
- Live what ever time is left for our Lord.

Taking the Devil to Dinner – How to Prevent Opening Yourself up to Demonic Influence

A few notes from the video. See the video for the rest:

- Perry Stone is back with his “Perry Stone 2015 | “Taking the Devil to Dinner” | Manna Fest 2015” video
- He describes the process through which demons work through things you do or don't do
- Offenses: You've been offended. If you don't forgive the offense you open the door to tormenting spirits that can make you miserable and down right ornery
- Doors, Hooks and Closets: How you can open the door for demonic influence, chattings in your ear, imagination planting, negative emotion charging to get you to act on that bad imagination implanting – that’s what happened to Cain. Cain was offended that God didn’t like his sacrifice but liked Abel’s. Demonic imaginations were suggested into his head, chattings in the ear (most likely), then the EMOTION, the negative emotion supplies the negative charge of energy that got Cain to ACT on the implanted imagination (killing his brother) – and he did.

My GOD Your Maker

Why does it seem that so many don’t know You at all?

Why are so many people so confused?

You have revealed Yourself: who You are, what You are like and what You like for centuries. You have done so in Your Word.

Why do so many people not get it? Why do so many people want to push You away and make up their own rules about Your heaven?

Why do people keep making up their own denominations or their own new religions? Why do people keep thinking that good works and being good, while ignoring You, their Maker, their Gate, their Way into Heaven, will get them in the Heaven? Why do they think that You want them around You for an eternity when they don’t even know You or care for You?

Why don’t they get it?

Why don’t they see? Why don’t they understand?

Why don't they understand when Your example of who You are and what You want is demonstrated all throughout life? How do people get so confused when You, Your character, what You want, what You like, the meaning of life, our purpose in life and how to get to Heaven is so clearly spelled out in Your Word, the Bible.

Always wanting more and not seeing what they have, people forget even about the gift of life on earth. They keep comparing to others. They get jealous. They get greedy. And then they get really confused, susceptible to any sort of lie or strange ways of thinking. Some go as far to ruin their lives and lives of others.

And all they needed to do was open their eyes, be astounded at life itself, wonder how they actually got here on Earth, wonder why they are here, wonder how they are made, wonder why they are made, wonder who their Maker is, look around to see the good things of life, the great things of life, acknowledging that every day and every breath is a gift and wondering what happens after they die...

If only people could start thinking like this again maybe they would find You, maybe they would seek You, maybe they would cry out for You. Maybe they could learn the awesome richness, depths and electric awesomeness of Your Person.

Maybe they could find love like they've never felt before. Maybe they could get right with their Maker. Maybe they could find joy. Maybe they could find peace. Maybe they could find richness of life.

Maybe they could discover Heaven and how to actually get in to Heaven. Maybe they could love others in amazing ways. Maybe everyone around them could start becoming hopeful again.

Maybe they could delight in You because they got to know You better. And maybe then Your Power and love could shine through them, opening the eyes of others to You, turning others hearts towards You and letting Your awesome goodness and fantastic depths of love become their experience too.

My God is Your Maker! I hope you get to know Him soon. He is genuinely AWESOME!
